Council Member Raddatz motioned to approve the Consent Agenda Items. Council Member Clark seconded the motion, motion carried.

PUBLIC FORUM

There was a complaint regarding potholes on Dudley Avenue, council requested that Public Works review mitigation options.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS

Community Picnic: Ebenezer Lutheran Church requested the use of a couple picnic tables for the community picnic on the church lawn on August 30. The council was okay with the use of the tables.

Pump House Heater: Council requested that the heater in the north pump house be repaired or replaced before October first.

OLD BUSINESS

Pumper: The Fire Department is looking into municipalities or non-profits that might be interested in purchasing the replaced pumper.

First Street Tree Cutting- A non-resident requested that some trees along the boulevard on first street be cut down. The council decided cutting them down was not cost effective or practical at this time as they will be cut down during the upcoming street projects.

NEW BUSINESS

Budget: Council will be starting the review process for the 2024 budget.
